Dear Women of Distinction Award Recipients,

Congratulations on your well-deserved honor. I understand the Women of Distinction Award is given to those who support the fight against women suffering from HIV/AIDS and cancer.

Being a recipient of the Women of Distinction Award from Celebrating Women International illustrates that you possess leadership ability, willingness to work within your community and dedication to women's health around the world. I wish you well as you continue to excel in the years to come, and I note your success with my personal congratulations.

On behalf of the great state of Arkansas, congratulations on your tremendous achievement. Together, we can make a real difference for the next generation.

Sincerely,
